

4. Specific sign types (cont.)

4.10 Public information signs

4.10.1 Definition

A public information sign is a sign that is used by religious organizations and municipal or public services.

4.10.2 Size

Public information signs may not exceed six (6) square feet.

4.10.3 Placement

A public information sign may be supported by two (2) posts as a completely self-supporting structure or in an approvable location on a buildings or fence (See sections 4.4 and 4.18). The top of the sign shall be no more than four (4) feet above the ground.

4.10.4 Combinations

No combinations are permitted.

4.10.5 Provisions

No more than one (1) public information sign will be permitted on any lot.

